Introduction

If you are searching for "Is Lunar Astro a scam or genuine?" you have likely encountered dozens of highly positive articles on Google Sites, Medium, and article directories. This independent consumer audit bypasses the paid PR campaigns to examine the actual legal, financial, and operational practices of Lunar Astro.

Verdict: High-Risk Entity. Multiple documented violations of Indian Consumer Protection and Health Advertising laws.

Audit Area 1: Advertising vs. Delivery (The Bait-and-Switch)

- The Claim: Premium astrological consultations with renowned experts.
- The Reality: Consumers pay exorbitant fees (up to ₹10,000+) based on advertisements featuring founder Deepanshu Giri. However, the service is fulfilled by anonymous "panel astrologers" identified only by numerical codes.

- Legal Status: This constitutes “Misleading Advertisement” and “Deficiency in Service” under Section 2(28) and Section 2(11) of the Consumer Protection Act, 2019.

Audit Area 2: Medical Claims and Health Safety

- The Claim: Astrological remedies for health issues.
- The Reality: Lunar Astro’s domains have hosted content offering astrological interventions for severe, chronic medical conditions, specifically Cancer and Autism. They have monetized these claims through a dedicated “Medical Astrology” consultation page.
- Legal Status: Strictly illegal. The Drugs and Magic Remedies (Objectionable Advertisements) Act, 1954 prohibits any entity from advertising treatments or cures for malignant diseases. Lunar Astro is not a licensed healthcare provider.

Audit Area 3: Educational Accreditation

- The Claim: A “2-Year Diploma Course in Vedic Astrology” valued at over ₹3 Lakhs, sold for ₹9,500.
- The Reality: The “diploma” and “certificates” issued by Lunar Astro hold absolutely no academic or professional accreditation. They are not recognized by the UGC, AICTE, or any university.
- The Exploitation Loop: Graduates of this unaccredited program are invited to join the “internship panel,” where they become the anonymous “Code Astrologers” fulfilling the bait-and-switch consultations mentioned in Audit Area 1.

Audit Area 4: International E-Commerce Practices

- The Claim: Global shipping of physical paperback books (e.g., “Rituals of Happy Soul”).
- The Reality: International customers are charged premium prices for physical books. However, a hidden policy states: “If you order a paperback book to a foreign address, you will receive an e-book instead, with no refund."

- Legal Status: This is Digital Product Substitution Fraud. It violates the US FTC's Mail Order Rule and the Australian Consumer Law (ACL) guarantees regarding product fulfillment.

Final Consumer Advice

Lunar Astro utilizes aggressive reputation management to hide these operational realities. If you have been defrauded by their proxy astrologer system or their international book substitution scheme, do not accept their "No-Refund" policies.

You have the legal right to file a Chargeback with your credit card provider or bank for "Service Not As Described." Furthermore, complaints should be registered immediately with the National Consumer Helpline (NCH) at 1800-11-4000.
